

HEAVY FABRICATION FORMER:

Candidate must have at least 2 years' of commercial/naval structural experience as a Steel Worker in the fabrication of structural components in accordance with MIL-STD-1688/1689, Tech Pub 248/278 and PPD documentation. Candidate will respond to job assignment goal sheets daily in the layout and forming of MIL-SPEC steel per technical documents and guidelines. Capable of reading drawings, measuring, marking and scribing layouts.

Required skills for this position include:

- Ability to comprehend complex structural assembly drawings, blueprints and sketches to include material types, datum and reference lines.
- Ability to comprehend fractional and decimal dimensions as with the use of a ruler.
- Ability to layoff piece parts for fabrication and assembly.
- Ability to assemble piece parts in accordance with specifications in a quality manner.
- Experience working in a physically demanding environment.
- Experience setting up and operating manual brakes, press brakes, shears, rollers and vertical band saws.
- Experience with a Digibend 720 a plus.

MUST BE A U.S. CITIZEN FOR THIS POSITION.